

an artilleryman, and at the call for vol-unteers on Lake Eric reported for duty on an American brig to fight an English frigate. He was in the battle of Black Rock, which site is now the city of Buf-falo, and lost an arm. For this he received a pension of $30 a year.

I enlisted in the Marine Corps on March 5, 1846, at Philadelphia; and on Feb. 5, 1847, sailed from Boston on the battleship Ohio, bound for Vera Cruz. In 1861, or 1862, I was appointed on the Metropolitan police force. ASSIGNED TO DUTY AT THE WHITE HOUSE

On Nov. 3, 1864, Serg't John Cronin, Alfonso Duan, Andrew Smith and myself were ordered to report at the First Precinct, in the old City Hall, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon. We supposed we were to be detailed for detective work in New York City, on account of the great riot, especially as we were ordered to report in citizens' clothes, to conceal our revolvers, and to be sure to have them clean and in good order. We arrived at the City Hall, and were told that we were to go to the President's Mansion, there to report to Mr. Lanham, United States Marshal of the District of Columbia.

Arriving at the White House, Marshal

Lanham took us upstairs and into the President's office, where we were intro-duced to Mr. Lincoln and to his Secretaries, Mr. Nicolay and Mr. Hay, the lat-ter now Secretary of State. We were then instructed to keep a sharp lookout in the different parts of the house, more particularly in the East Room and at the door of the President's office.

On the first Sabbath morning at the White House we were in a little waiting room on the right-hand of the stairs. This room on the right-hand of the stairs. This room of late years until the remodeling of the White House was commenced had been used by the President as a smoking-room, and also as a reception room for those calling on the President and his family socially. Where later Was the elevator used to be a pair of little old-fashioned stairs. This was a favorite stairway of Mr. Lincoln's; he used more than any other in the house.

When Mr. Lincoln came downstairs that Sunday morning we were all chatting—and by "we" I mean Edward Burke, his old coachman, Edward McManus, Alfonso Dunn and myself. Entering the room he said, "Which one of you gentleseemen will take a walk with me as far as Secretary Stanton's house? He is sick in bed and I want to see him." As I had seen a good deal of the world and had been placed with public men of high station, I arose and said, "Mr. President, he remarked in a thoughtful is so; that is so." Then we passed along out the eastern gate and across Pennsylvania avenue to Secretary Stanton's house, which was op-posite Franklin Square on the north side of K street, near the late Senator Sherman's residence. It was an elegant build-ing. I rang the bell, and the servant who we were shown into the private parlor.

The President said, "Now, you remain down here; I am going upstairs into Secretary Stanton's room; he is sick in bed."

I picked up a book and passed the time examining it until the President returned. On the way back to the White House the President was silent a long time, thinking of the grave problems of the day, thinking of the grave problems of the day, I presume. After a while he began to talk, and in the course of the conversation I mentioned Senator Harlan, and said, "Mr. President, Senator Harlan seems to be a very good man." He replied. "Yes, Senator Harlan is a good man." It always seemed to me a singular coincidence that very soon after this con-versation Mr. Lincoln appointed Senator Harian as one of his Cabinet officers.

Afterward Robert Lincoln married Mr.

Harian's daughter Mary, whom I knew very well, as I did also her mother and father.

thrust notes into his hands as he passed and in many ways annoy him. One day just as we got to the front door, after going out of the private corridor, there was a nurse who had been in the East Room with an infant in her arms and just as we got to the front door, after going out of the private corridor, there was a nurse who had been in the East Room with an infant in her arms and a little tot walking by her side. Just as we were about to pass out of the door, she got in front of us. I took hold of the little tot gently, and moved her to one side so that we could get out. The President, President, there are quite little tot gently, and moved her to one side so that we could get out. The President of this action, and rather disapproved of my moving the child to let him pass and said, "That's all right; that's all right; that' him pass and said, "That's all right; that's all right." When we did get out he start-ed off rapidly. Mr. Lincoln did not seem to be walking very fast, but it kept me hustling to keep up with him; so much so that although I was pretty tall myself, I had a curiosity to know how tall the President was. One day as we were about to leave the White House, I asked the President his hight. He replied, "I am just six feet three inches in my stock-ing feet."

am just six feet three inches in my stocking feet."

MR. LINCOLN AND THE MOLLY M'GUIRES.

During the rebellion the "Molly McGuires" up in the State of Pennsylvania had been giving the Government a great deal of trouble, as a result of the officers endeavoring to enforce the draft which had been proclaimed all over the United States.

The "Molly McGuires" were of the tough element that infested the State of Pennsylvania. Many a good man was put out of the way by these roughs, and it could never be found out who committed.

PRESIDENT LINCOLN AS HE APPEARED IN WAR TIME.

a waiting room, and soon reappeared with

He was not willing for me to be in rickety chairs constituted the furniture. Those were the days when we were not thinking about furniture. Little Tad piled two or three chairs upon the settee and secreted himself behind it. Just as the President came in, Tad pitched the chairs and settee over into the middle.

the chairs and settee over into the middle prison." The two Irish women, without stepped quickly into the private part further words, turned away and left in the house, through what was later the Cab-double-quick time. double-quick time.

THE PRESIDENT'S KINDNESS OF HEART. THE PRESIDENT'S KINDNESS OF HEART. his Bible in his hand. He then sat down and read to me that identical passage he the gentle nature of the great President and what manner of man he was. There came to the White House one day an chapter of Proverbs, and at the 10th Irish woman, well advanced in years. She was accompanied by her little daughter, who could read and write, and who was doubt as to his correct quotation of a Bible passage, but must needs take his station, I arose and said, "Mr. President, I will walk with you."

After we had passed out of the front door and were still on the main portice, but out of the hearing of anyone, the President said to me, "I have received a great many threatening letters, but I have no feat."

After we got off the portice, going east, After we got off the portice, going east, and L would like to have him discharged, and L would like to have him discharged, and L would like to have him discharged, but must needs take his bele passage, but must needs take his precious time to prove himself right in my eyes. How simple-hearted, yet how truly great a man he was.

On one dark Sunday, to the best of my recollection, in the month of December, which is a sid, "Mr. President, my husband is down sick at the hospital in Fredericksburg, and L would like to have him discharged, been very much worried about affairs of After we got off the portice, going east, I said, "Mr. President, there has been many a good, brave man who has lost his life simply because he did not fear."

Then he remarked in a thoughtful way, "Then he remarked in a thoughtful way," thelp of one of them, either one of my sons or my husband." The President said, "You make an affidavit to that effect and bring it back to me."

In the course of a day or so she returned, and the President so arranged it that she could go down and take the order for the husband's or son's discharge. She had been gone probably three weeks, and the matter had passed out of my mind, when one day she returned to the White House. When she came to speak to the President her voice was full of sorrow, and she was nearly crying. "Mr. President her woice was full of sorrow, and she was nearly crying. "Mr. President her voice was full of sorrow, and she was nearly crying. "Mr. President her voice was full of sorrow, and she was nearly crying. "Mr. President her voice was full of sorrow, and she was nearly crying. "Mr. President to pass that way, then jump out and kill him before the guard could prevent, though he might be ever so watchful. When we reached Secretary Stanton's one to help me get along, and yers can have the other one." The President said to her, as he had done before, "You make an affidavit to that effect, and bring it to me." She did so. After he had arranged it so that she was to get one of her sons back, she stepped up to him and said, "Mr. President, may god bless you, and may you live many long years."

After she had left the room and there was nobody in the office but the President, and myself, he said to me, looking up into my face, "I believe that the old woman is honest."

One day an artist brought a painting of the President, which he wanted him to see. I went in and said, "Mr. President, there is a nan out there who has a painting he wants you to see." He replied "Feeth him in "The president, there was no one near us, the President said to me, looking up into my face, "I believe that the old woman is honest."

One day an artist brought a painting of the President, which he wanted him to see. I went in and said, "Mr. President, there is a nan out there who has a painting he wants you to see." He r the President, which he wanted him to see. I went in and said, "Mr. President, there is a man out there who has a painting he wants you to see." He replied, "Fetch him in." The artist came tugging the picture in a large, heavy frame. He put it down and waited for the President to speak. It was considered was at that time marching through the wants at that time marching through the South. On one occasion he remarked to me that he felt very uneasy about Sherman, since he had not been able to get any information regarding him for three weeks.

In going over to the War Department I used to try to expedite his leaving the In going over to the War Department I used to try to expedite his leaving the White House as much as possible, because people would always hang around and wait to a confined Mr. Lincoln, "I'll tell you why up at the President's attitude, and was so confused he could not reply. "Well," continued Mr. Lincoln, "I'll tell you why it is the best picture of me; it is the ugliest." The artist was rather taken back for a few moments, but went away perfectly satisfied.

Along about 4 o'clock one afternoon the were a number of people waiting outside to see the President. He looked outside to see the President and the looke

Another time a Major called. He was anxious to get into Gen. Hancock's Corps, then being organized. He told the President he would like to get in this corps, and left his papers with him. In the ronred with laughter.

In the month of November, 1864, Mr. Dana, Assistant Secretary of War (long years after this well known as the editor of the New York Sun) and Mr. Lincoln had an interview at the White House a Sabbath morning, after which they left together for the old War Department. After they had transacted their business, we started over to the old Navy Department. I kept a short distance behind them, because I did not want to overhear their conversation. As soon as they entered the building the doorkeeper slammed the door to, with a bang, in my face.

In an instant it was opened again, and Mr. Lincoln told the doorkeeper that it was all right and to let me in. We separated after they finished their business, In the same year, during the month of November, there was a great crowd as sembled in front of the President's mansion. I stood up at the window by Mr. Lincoln, and held a candle in my hand while Mr. Lincoln delivered his address. The majority of his listeners were soldiers. I thought while he was delivering that address how easy it would have been for some assassin to have killed him with an air gun. Afterward Henry Ward Beccher addressed this multitude of people, and

THE SECOND INAUGURATION.

Mr. Lincoln's last inauguration was the crowd then dispersed.

held on Saturday, and that night a reception was held. There was a lady from England, a personal friend of Secretary Stanton, who wished to see the President Stanton, who wished to see the President and shake hands with him. Mr. Stanton had her sent to the White House in his private carriage. When she got out of the carriage the multitude of people was so dense on the portico that it was almost impossible for her to get to the main entrance. She was nearly crushed to death. Unfortunately there was, some man with his heavy boot right light her foot. I was in the little walting room on the right-hand side of the entrance of the was in the little walting room on the door. There were two gentlemen with this lady who had rescued her from this lady who had rescued her temples. I continued doing so untilishe appeared to feel better. In the meantime, I left her in the sitting room, and growded my wars through the hallway where the jam of people was very compact, into the Blue Parlot, with a glass of water for Mr. Lincoln. He drank it, and seemed to enjoy it very much. The perspiration was just rolling down his face as he grasped the hands of the rasking throng, as though he had been splitting rails as of yore. After the lady had thoroughly recovered and shake hands with him. Mr. Stanton After the lady had thoroughly recovered and the reception was nearly over, she went in and had a grasp of the President's band. Everything passed off very nicely and the reception was nearly over, she went in and had a grasp of the President's band. Everything passed off very nicely that night, and next morning, the Sab-bath, Simon Cameron called upon the

Mr. Cameron was received in the Blue Parlor. After a while they came out and stood in the grand corridor opposite engaging in carnest conversation. The President said, "Cameron, something occurred to me last night at the reception that never did before." He held his hands up and said, "Cameron, between every one of these fingers is a bilister from the shaking of hands." After one term in the White House, and numerous receptions, the Press. House, and numerous receptions, the President had never experienced anything like this before. It was probably due to the interest felt in him on account of the

into the Red Parlor, took his card up-stairs, and soon the President and Mrs. Lincoln, with Mr. Colfax, then Speaker of the House, came downstairs and went into the Red Parlor, where Mr. Ashmun was waiting. They all entered into a lively conversation, and came out of the Red Parlor presently, and stood in the inner corridor. Their conversation was about the trip Mr. Colfax proposed to Choice products, fish, systers, etc. Prices moderate. take across the continent. They then passed out of the corridor into the main vestibule, and stood in the main entrance, where they again chatted. Mr. Colfax bade the President and Mrs. Lincoln good-evening, and went upstairs to see the evening, and went upstairs to see the Private Secretary, Mr. John G. Nicolay. Mr. Ashmun went out on the portico with the President and Mrs. Lincoln, said good-bye, and started off downtown. Nea Burke and Charles Forbes, the coachman and footman, respectively, drove over to a private residence, and took in the coach Maj. Rathbone and Miss Harris, who was the daughter of Senator Ira T. Harris, of New York.

was the daughter of Senator Ira T. Harris, of New York.

Previous to starting for the theater I said to John Parker, who had taken my place, to accompany Mr. Lincoln, "John, are you prepared?" I meant by this to usk if he had his revolver and everything all ready to protect the President in case of an assault. Alfonso Dunn, my old companion at the door, spoke up and said, "Oh, Tommy, there is no danger." I said, "Dunn, you don't know what might happen." Because I had traveled a good deal in my life, and had seen much of human nature, I said, "Parker, now you start down to the theater, to be ready for the Presideat when he reaches there. And you see him safe inside." He started off immediately, and did see Mr. Lincoln safe inside the theater; and Mrs. Lincoln, Maj. Rathbone and Miss Harris also reached Rathbone and Miss Harris also reached the building in safety. the building in safety.

What occurred after they left for the theater may be of interest, so I will mention the incidents occurring at the White Iouse during their absence.

About 10 o'clock, as nearly as I can re

the chairs and settee over into the middle of the floor in front of his father. The President roared out laughing. Sometimes when we would come from the War Department and pass through the same little room, little Tad would be there, and he would put his great arms around the little fellow and tug him upstairs.

There was a company of "Bucktails" down in the White Lot, south of the President's mansion. It was a rough rue. Buring the receition the "Molly McGuires" up in the State of Pennsylvania that been giving the Government a great deal of trouble, as a result of the officers endeavoring to enforce the draft which had been proclaimed all over the United States.

The "Molly McGuires" were of the tough element that infested the State of Pennsylvania. Many a good man was put out of the way by these roughs, and put out of the way by these roughs, and put out of the way by these roughs, and put out of the way by these roughs, and the deed, or when or how it was done. Consequently, the Government had to deal with these men. Quite a number of them were sent to prison.

One day a number of people were shown into them verse sent to prison.

One day a number of people were shown into the resident's office. Finally all left eversus that incolar shown in the Area of the series of the world of deal with these men. Quite a number of them were sent to prison.

One day a number of people were shown where the man carried signs of dissipation the world cond on the condition of the world on the world was the last time I ever saw the world on the world was the last time I ever saw the world on the world was the last time I ever saw the world on the world was the last time I ever saw the world on the world was the last time I ever saw the world on the world and said: "How you had been driving file of the President's online, and the world was the man carried signs of dissipation of them. He would go down where I was to talk. There seeds and house where the Lafaye to the door. He said, "I here as all, "I here as all to him. O's Sergent, I guess you must be mistaken!" i supposed he world was the world come down where I was to talk. There seeds before this, the world was the w

THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE: WASHINGTON, D. Q., THURSDAY, AUGUST 14, 1902.

Was Secretary, recessing him of not cross the control of the control of dent. And the bullet," he said, "has entered the left side of his head." I immediately hurried upstairs, leaving him on the inside, and went to Capt. Robert Lincoln's room. He had just come from the front that morning, where he had been doing duty on the staff of Gen. Grant.

That room was directly over the front portico. When I got into his private well, and had a vial in one hand containing medicine and a teaspoon in the other, as if he was about to take a dose of medicine.

As I stepped up to his side the teaspoon and the vial seemed to go involuntarily down on the table, and he did not take the medicine. I wanted to approach him gently and break the news to him about his father. So I simply said, "Captain, there has something happened to the contained to the continued.)

window, and before he got to me he burst of mervous weakness, resulting from youther fall folly, premature loss of strength and and never was dead. They've killed papa dead."

I put my arm around him and drew him up to me, and tried to pacify him as best I could. I tried to divert his attention to other things, but every now and then he would burst out crying again.

I put my arm around him and drew him up to me, and tried to pacify him as best I could. I tried to divert his attention to other things, but every now and then he would burst out crying again, and repeat of the desired location giving strength and every meant hand seems to act direct to to the desired location giving attention to other things, but every now and then he would burst out crying, again.

The renedy has a peculiarty attention to other this attention to other things, but every now and then he would burst out crying, again, and repeat of the desired location giving attention to other things, but every now and then he will be sent affect of warmth and seems to act direct to to the desired location giving attention to other things, but every now and then he would never the make an actual means of act of the papa dead." They've killed papa dead."

The renedy has a peculi

A Most Remarkable Remedy That Quickly Restores Lost Vigor To Men.

A Free Trial Package Sent By Mail To All Who Write.

Free trial packages of a most remarkable remedy are being mailed to all who will write the State Medical Institute. They entered through the east door of the base-entered through the east door of the base-ment of the White House. He came up years against the mental and physical sufthe stairway and ran to me, while I was ages to all who write. It is a home treat-"They have shot the Presithe bullet," he said, "has enthe bullet," he said, "has enthe bullet," he said, "has enout crying. "O Tom Pen! Tom Pen! they out crying. "O Tom Pen! they out crying. "O Tom Pen! they out ful folly, premature loss of strength and

SUBSCRIBERS' ADVERTISING COLUMNS.

"Patronize Each Other." SODA FOUNTAINS.

NOVELTIES.

THE HALL TUCKER-THE PERFECTED

ADDRESSES WANTED.

WANTED.—Parties who knew my father, Peter Dorgan, late of Co. B, 78th N. Y. Tef, after his discharge from the army in 1863. Will be paid for trouble in answering ad. Address Joseph F. Dorgan, 6818 State St., Chicago, Ill.

WANTED-By Angeline Smith, Box 308, George-town, Mass., information of Woodbridge A. Rogers, Troop E, 7th U.S. Cav. Last heard from in South Carolina in 1864.

FOR SALE AND EXCHANGE.

FOR SALE -FINE FARM, 160 ACRES DEEDED

sheep raising; also, tine crops assured. For particulars address C. L., Box 40, Sidney, Mont.

FOR INFORMATION ABOUT CUMBERLAND Phileau, write to Lyman S. Widney, Crossville, BUSINESS CHANCES.

$6.000 STOCK OF GENERAL MERCHANof Woods Counties, Okia. My stock is Dry Goods, Groceries, Queensware, Shoes, Hats, Furnishing Grods, Hardware, Tinware, Implements, Notions, &c. Well located on railroad in a good farming country. A snap, Address J. P. D. Mouriquand, Homestead, Okia.

YOU WILL NEVER GET RICH WORKING for others. Start a business of your own. How you can make $3,000 per year. Can guarantee success if you take our advice. Plan and outht for 20c. Union Supply Co., Box B, San Bernardino, Cal.

The price of this advertising has been and I accompanied Mr. Lincoln back to fixed at 5 cents a word, which is a very the White House.

> All the world deals now through the mails or by express or freight. Try it vourseif.

Write us the substance of what you want to say, and we will arrange it in the fewest possible words.

Regimental historians and Secretaries of Survivors' Associations will find these columns very useful.

Direct letter to Adv. Dept., National

BOOKS AND PICTURES.

CRAYON PORTRAITS.

this before. It was probably due to the interest felt in him on account of the great events of the day.

THE NIGHT OF THE ASSASSINATION.

On April 14, 1865, in the evening, just previous to the time when the President and Mrs. Lincoln avere going to the theater, George Ashmun, of Massachusetts, called on Mrs. Lincoln, and I showed him into the Red Parlor, took his card upper the second of th

HOTELS AND SUMMER RESORTS

GRAND CENTRAL HOTEL - EUROPEAN, Salina, Kansas, Chas, Bush, Proprietor, Nicely furnished rooms, Rates 25c, and 50c, per day.

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL WALTZ PUBLISHED Is "The Pansy Blossom." By Willis, Five pages, sheet music size. Postage prepaid, 25 cents. W. R. Willis, Warsaw, Ohio.

AGENTS WANTED.

COMRADES: WE PAY $1 PER DAY. EASY, for postage, packing, etc., etc., and go to work at once. C. C. C. Co., Box 28, Mill Hall, Pa.

RECIPES FOR MAKING YELLOW, GOLD, green, blue, parple, invisible, india, silver, scarlet, indelible, luminous (shines in the dark), brown, violet, travelers, or ink powder. Inks are the very best. 10 cents each; 4 recipes, 25 cents; 10 recipes, 56 cents. Cline, Dept. No. 711, Decatar, Indians.

MISCELLANEOUS.

FOR SALE—THE WONDER PICNIC SODA

Foundain: weighs 10 pounds. Sent, express paid, for $3. Can be set up anywhere in five minutes. Just the thing for picules, carnivals, fairs, etc. Neat and clean; no trouble to operate. Directions for making soda water and syrups with fount; costs only if cent, for each class of soda; sells at 5 cents; profit 4% cents. Can make your money back in 10 days. Address Albert Monroe, Fitzgerald, Ga.

SPECIAL BARGAIN.—TO COMRADES AND National Tribune readers: Send One Dollar to H. H. Chapman, Gratiot, Ohio, and get a sample box 59 in box) of his La Resa Habana, Cuba, Cigars, by mail pre-paid. Sweet smokes that smoke. Long fillers.

A RE YOU TOO FAT? IT'S DANGEROUS.

A Maybe it hasn't affected your heart yet. Well, don't die by degrees; better get a gun and save suffering. Dove's Obesity Treatment will reduce your flesh safety and promptly and give you permaneut relief-15 to 20 pounds per month, sure. Thirty days' treatment, with full directions, $5. Ninety days' treatment, with full directions, $5. Ninety days' treatment, $10. By mail, postpaid. Never fails. Address Dr. J. Franklin Dove, Camden, Mo.

SEND FOR OUR NATIONAL NEEDLE CASE, 57 x 14, containing 4 papers Silver Steel Needles, 4 Steel Bodkin, 2 Eutton Needles, 4 Yarh Darners, 1 Chenile Needle, 4 Coton Darners, 1 Tapesstry Needle, 2 Wool Darners, 2 Bannet Pins, 2 Short Darners, 2 Hat Pins, 2 Looping Needles, 2 Showt Pins, 2 Crewel Needles, 2 Clook Pins, 2 Milliner's Needles, 26 Oil Tempered Pins, 6 Toilet Pins, 1 Crochet Needle, 1 Caril Hooks and Eyes. In Case. Sent postspalid for 20 cis, stamps or silver. National Supply Co., Jamestowu, Pa. THE HALL TUCKER—THE PERFECTED adjustable spacer and time-saving self-folder; adjustable to any machine. In introducing the Hall macker, we are giving to the public the most simple and most casily adjusted tucker on the market. You can tuck chiffen, silk and woolen materials with as much ease as you can tuck muslin. This tocker is made of the very best material, and is so simple that a child can use it. It will last a life time. Frice $1.

Agents wanted. Sample tucker, 50c. to agents. The Hall Tucker Co., Liverpool, N. Y.

Wool Darners, 2 Bonnet Pins, 2 Short Darners, 2 Hat Pins, 2 Clook Pins, 2 Milliner's Needles, 30 oil Temperdel Pins, 5 Tollet Pins, 1 Crochet Needle, 10 cit, stamps of silver. National Supply Co., Jamestowu, Pa.

GET CURED OF CHRONIC DIARRHEA BY ex-Army Surgeon. Samples 10c. Monthly treatment, $1. Dr. Camp, 21 Quincy St., Chicago.

I FITLE PIN HEAD ANTI-CONSTIPATION Pills, Nothing like it on the market. A positive cure for Constipation, Stomach and Liver Troubles.
Ask druggist or send for free package. Little Pin Head Chemical Co., Dept. F, Jewell, Kan. 16 TH REGIMENT, N. Y. VOL. INF.—GEN. N. M. Chrits, Ogdensburg, N. Y., is writing its history during the Civil War, and wants the address of each living member, the date of death of deceased members, with company and regiment, and any who may have entered after discharge from the 16th. Company and friends of the members of the regiment will please furnish the information asked for.

REUNIONS.

SHERMAN BRIGADE.—THE 330 ANNUAL Reunion of the Sherman Brigade, composed of the 64th and 65th Ohio, the 6th Ohio Battery, and McLaughlin's Squadron of Cavairy, will be held at Chiekamauga National Military Park, Ga., and Chaltanooga, Tenn., Sept. 18 to 23. All members of organizations that served in the Harker Brigade or the Garfield-Harker Briende, 125th Ohio, 3d. 18th and 28th Ky., the 51st and 73:1 Ind., the 13th Mich., 15th Mo., 22d, 27th, 42d, 51st, 79th and 10th Ill., and 19th Ohio, are invited to participate. The Central Passenger Association has granted a rate of one cent per mile. Tickets on sale Sept. 16 and 17, good to return to Oct. 15. Thos. Everly, Secretary, Holmesville, O. 308 ACRES OF IMPROVED LAND FOR sale; 30 acres bottom; all in cultivation and pusture, except 35 acres timber. Five springs, Shipping convenient. Price $15 per acre. A smap. Write for particulars. J. W. Noland, El Dorado Springs, Mo-COMRADES, COME TO THE GENIAL CLI-prices, Address C. F. Waldron, Welaka, Fla. For-merly Co. F. 33th Reg't, Ohlo Vol. Inf. FOR ALL KINDS OF INFORMATION ABOUT cheap alfalfa, wheat, corn, and grazing lands, write D. J. Myers, Red Cloud, Nebraska.

CROCKER'S IOWA BRIGADE.—THE HTH BIennial Reunion of the famous Crocker Iowa Brigade will be held at Muscatine, Iowa, Sept. 24 and 25. All soldlers who served in the 11th, 13th, 15th and 16th Iowa are entitled to membership, and are earnessly urged to attend. No pains are being spared to make this one of the best meetings the survivors have ever had since the war. D. W. Bushnell, Secretary, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

1 00 PER CENT. PROFIT IN RED RIVER Lands. Immense crops, Wheat, Onts, Barley, Flax, and Potatoes; Fine Clover, Timothy, and Blue-stem Gmisses. Rich, black loan; nice level land. Ad-dress C. W. Bricker, Ladorn, Iowa. THE 10076 ILL.—THE ANNUAL REUNION of the 100th III. will be held at Jollet, III., Sept. II. Geo. Pickel, Secretary, Box 1575, Jollet, III.

THE 8rm OHIO.—THE SURVIVORS OF THE 8th Ohio (Carroll's old regiment) will hold their 28th Annual Remion at Oberlin, O., Sept. 17 and 18, All survivors are urged to be present. O. G. Daniel, Secretary, Mt. Vernon, O. DO YOU WANT MONEY? IF 80, I WILL help you to start a profitable business at home. Nothing like it ever offered before. Complete instruc-tions mailed for 20 cents. Nothing else to buy. Royal H. Brasel, Muskogee, I. T.

THE HITH N. Y.—THE SURVIVORS OF THE HITH N. Y., will hold a Reunion at Palmyra, N. Y., Sept. 10. Business meeting at G.A.R. Hall at 12 m. Chas. J. Stupp, Secretary, Auburn, N. Y. THE ST. LAWRENCE COUNTY VETERANS Association will hold its 14th Annual Remnion at Ogdensburg, N. Y., Aug. 21 and 22. Frank Johnson, Secretary, Ogdensburg, N. Y.

THE 108rm II.L.—THE 108rm II.L. WILL CELE-brate its 40th anniversary in Reunion at Peoria, III., Oct. 14. J. E. McDermott, Adjutant, Peoria, III. THE 49TH OHIO.—THE 57TH ANNUAL RE-union of the 49th Onio will be held at Gibsonburg, O., Sept. 19. A. M. Dildine, Secretary, Box 260, Lima, O. THE 1018T OHIO. THE SETH ANNUAL RE-union of the 101st Ohio will be held at Tiffin, O., Sept. 18. E. W. Currigan, Secretary, Tiffin, O.

THE 35th IOWA.—THE SURVIVORS OF THE 35th Iowa will meet in Reunion at Muscatine, Iowa, Sept. 24 and 25. Crocker's Iowa Brigade will hold its Reunion on the same date. R. D. Bodman, Secretary, Muscatine, Iowa.

THE 1ST OHIO CAV.—THE 220 ANNUAL RE-union of the 1st Ohio Cav. will be held at Co-numbus, O., Aug. 20. Col. W. L. Curry, Secretary, State House, Columbus, O.

TO MAKE PURE BAKING POWDER AT 10 cents per pound, send 25 cents for recipe. N. Fellows, Riverton, Iowa. DR EDWIN BRIGHAM, INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., cured terrible cancer on my neck, Photo-graph shows. The Doctor is an expert. Write con-cerning cure. Samuel Petty, Fortville, Ind.

STEUBEN RANGERS, THE DITH ANNUAL Reunion of the 86th N. Y. will be held at G.A.R. Hall, Troupsburg, Aug. 28. A. H. Dunham, Secretary, Knoxville, Pa. HOLM'S ALL-HEALING OHL.—FOR CUTS, Reulises, Scalds, Burns, etc. Reduces and prevents inflammation, Is soothing and healing. Mechanics and laborers should not be without it. Teamsters and horsemen will find it invaluable for the treatment of collar and saddle galls and bruises. D. D. Holm, Huntington, Indiana.

COMRADES AND OTHERS WITH WEAK AND Sore Eyes, Failing Sight, try Barman's Remedy "Clearsight," Quick relief, Mailed for Ts. cents. A. G. Bridgeport, Aug. 20. W. F. Smith, Secretary, New Hathaway, 124 Willis St., New Beifford, Mass.

MAULSBY'S RATTERY.—THE ISTH ANNUAL Reunion of the Society of Maulsby's liattery will be held at Catawas, Marion County, W. Va., Sept.
13. N. C. Cochran, Chairman Committee, Fairmount, W. Va.

HATHAWAY'S BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP.

Made from Roots, Herbs and Rarks. Cures Liver Compliaints in the worst stages. 40 years expericace in making this preparation. 25 for six bottles, exlogic Liver Compliaints in the worst stages. 40 years expericace in making this preparation. 25 for six bottles, exlogic Liver Compliaints in the worst stages. 40 years expericace in making this preparation. 25 for six bottles, exlogic Liver Compliance Itali, Columbus, Thursday, sept. 4, 9 to 10 clock. Altered State Fair together in afternoon. T. M. Sechler, Secretary, Moline, Ill.

MISCELLANEOUS.

MISCELANEOUS.

MISCELANEOUS.

MISCELANEOUS.

MISCELANEOUS.

MISCELANEOUS.

MISCELANEOUS.

MISC

74 TH IND.—THE 18TH ANNUAL REUNION of the 74th Ind. will be held at Cromwell, Noble Co., Ind., Sept. 23 and 25. All members of the regiment are requested to be present. W. A. Peddycord, Secretary, Goshen, Ind. CHICKEN CHOLERA CURE.-FOR 50 CENTS I will send to any address recipe for unfailing and inexpensive cholera cure. Lock Box 5, Man-chester, O.

FOR SALE.—ONE INVALID ROLLING CHAIR; three wheels and good as new, Cost $30; will sell for about half. Who wants it? Address J. P. Brown, 51 Marbie St., Springfield, Mass.

128TH OHIO.—THE 27TH ANNUAL RE-lusky, O., Aug. 20. L. W. Balley, Secretary and Trens-trer, West House, Sandusky, O.

THE Stru II.I. -THE 20TH ANNUAL REUNION of the 8th III. will be held at Bushnell, III., Sept. 10. H. H. Nance, President, Vermont, III.

37TH IND.—THE 21st ANNUAL REUNION of the 57th Ind. will be held at Greensburg, Ind., Aug. 27. Will J. Crister, Secretary, Greensburg. WANTED-NATIONAL TRIBUNK ADVERTIS-ing coupons. Inclose stamp for price. National Supply Co., Jamestown, Pa.

THE MARVEL OF THE 20TH CENTURY—THE
New Trimph Sewing Machine at the unheardof price of $1.85. Guarunteed to do as good work as the $50 machines, lock stitch. With package of self-setting needles, Sent to any part of the United States on reoutpt of price, P. O. order or registered letter. National 51 ST O. V. V. I.—THE ANNUAL REUNION will be held at Coshocton, Ohio, Sept. 19, 1902. I. A. Correll, Secretary, New Philadelphia, Ohio.